

XM radio is a great technology and it has been a great service to me to be able to have weather info and traffic at your finger tips. Local radio does not spend the time or effort to communicate an in depth report on traffic and weather. The reception and clarity is state of the art and why can't we have the technology, that is what America is about is advancement and technology